

JOHN COLEMAN

INSURANCE AGENT

John Coleman joined Long Insurance Group in August 2016 with over 2 years of experience in the insurance industry. His career has included working on the sales side of insurance as well as being a Youth Pastor. Originally from Michigan, John attended Liberty University in Lynchburg, VA and graduated with a Bachelor's of Science in Theology.

When asked about his current role as a producer for Long Insurance Group, John says his favorite part is finding the right coverage for each client's situation so they are properly covered. When not helping clients, John enjoys spending time with his family including his wife of 16 years and his two boys (11 and 7).
